NEWS AND COMMENT.

The body of a man found near Coral Ridge, with his throat cut and clothes torn, has been identified as that of John Hart, of Louisville. Notwithstanding circumstances that pointed strongly to murder, it now seems conclusively proved that it was a case of suicide.

Frank Paul, one of Louisville's gamblers, was found guilty Saturday and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, with a fine of $500.

The feeling in London is that the Boer war will go on for some time. Very little progress in pacification is expected.

CHINESE BOXERS

Will Have to Submit to the Demand of the Powers and Empress An's Decree.

THE PENALTY IS TO STAND

Latest Reports Show a Condition Promising and Encouraging to the Ministers and the World.

HOW THE CONDEMNED ARE TO DIE

Peking, Feb. 18.—It is now said, in semi-official circles, that the Empress Dowager is gradually weakening in regard to the demands of the powers. In an edict issued on February 16, which was communicated to the foreign ministers by the Chinese commissioners, she reiterates the sins of China, which she declares were committed because of the bad advice of the great ministers, who deserve the severest punishments demanded in the note of indictment of the ministers.

In the edict the Dowager Empress scores many high officials, and orders that Prince Tuan and Duke Lan must be banished for life to the borders of the great ministers, who deserve the severest punishments demanded in the note of indictment of the ministers.

In regard to Yu Hsien, the notorious ex-Governor of Shansi province, who personally killed numerous Christians, the empress in the decree says that he has fled to the province of Kansu, but he will be apprehended immediately and executed under the supervision of a high official who will be appointed for that purpose.

As to Yinlin, or Tinglin, and Chao Shu Chao, it is ordered that they shall be imprisoned while awaiting execution. Gen. Tung Fu Hsiang is deprived of all his honors and will be relieved of his command.

In regard to Kan Yi, Li Peng Heng and Han Tung who are dead, the empress commands that all official honors shall be revoked, as a posthumous sentence, and that the punishments under the Chinese laws shall be visited on their families, as demanded by the ministers.

As to the two Chinese officials whose punishment was demanded by the ministers, and who are in the hands of the Japanese troops, the decree says that the court does not know of any evidence that warrants the infliction of the death punishment. However, the decree appoints Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching special commissioners to look into the matter, and to report fully as to the nature of the crimes of these two men.

While this decree does not comply fully with the demands of the ministers, it makes the punishment of certain officials more severe than was heretofore expected. The sentence of imprisonment while awaiting execution means simply what it says, but the appointment of commissioners to investigate the crimes of the two Chinese officials held by the Japanese as prisoners practically settles their cases. These commissioners can be trusted to picture them so black that the court will comply with the demand for their beheading.

Altogether the decree is very encouraging.

Hand—He Came to the City Today and Had Capt. Joe Fowler's Mad Stone Applied.

Mr. Willis Mitchell, a well known farmer of the Grahamville section, came to the city this morning to have Capt. Joe Fowler's mad stone applied to a painful wound on his right hand, inflicted by his dog yesterday.

The animal was sitting on the porch when Mr. Mitchell reached over and petted him on the head. He snarled him, making serious lacerations. The animal afterwards snapped at Mrs. Mitchell three times, and then left home, and when search was made to kill him could not be found.

There is considerable excitement in the neighborhood, owing to the fact that there have recently been so many dogs supposed to be mad.

Capt. Joe's madstone stuck heroically to the wound.

DIYERSBURG IS EXCITED

Over a Fiendish Assault Which Promises to End in a Lynching, Also, by Night.

ATLANTA HAS A SENSATIONAL CRIME

Passengers into the city at noon from Memphis said this forenoon there was great excitement at Dyersburg, Tenn., and a mob was understood to be gathering to hang a negro arrested for brutal assault on Miss Elise Arnold, a daughter of Dr. W. J. Arnold, of that city.

Saturday night, it is said, a negro entered Miss Arnold's room and assaulted her with a hatchet, injuring her severely, but not fatally. Robbery was his purpose and the negro assaulted the lady while she awoke. She was left unconscious and rallied to find herself in a pool of blood.

The city was aroused and bloodhounds were used and the trail was followed to the house of a negro named Fred King who was arrested and is said to have confessed and the hatchet used was found. King was the house boy at the Arnold place and was not at all suspected.

A mob gathered last evening to hang Arnold, a would-be rapist, also in the Dyersburg jail, but at the request of Dr. Arnold took no action, agreeing to await his trial today. The trial, it is said, was the occasion of the excitement today and it was thought a lynching would surely follow.

Later—King is still on trial. A lynching tonight is fully expected. The excitement is high.

Still Later—A bulletin to The Sun, received at 3 o'clock, says King was taken from the jail by a mob, tried on the public square, and lynched. He implicated other negroes. One was caught and will be lynched also.

St. Peter, La., Feb. 18.—Yesterday morning a negro named Jackson murdered Alex Bourgeois, wife and two children, all respected whites. Jackson was captured and at dusk lynched near the scene of his crime.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 18.—Mrs. Wilson, a young widow, and Wm. Hamilton, a pharmacy student, who had been paying her attention, were found dead near the city in the woods. An empty pistol nearby indicated a crime had occurred, but the woods had been drenched and both bodies badly burned, suggesting another character of crime than appeared on first thought.

Secretary A. C. Atkins, of Paducah lodge No. 217, B. P. O. E., is in receipt of a letter from the recently instituted Elks lodge at Cairo, Ill., accepting the invitation of Paducah lodge to visit them.

The Cairo Elks will arrive next Thursday, and will attend the regular lodge meeting in the evening, which is to be unusually lively. Among other candidates will be the Messrs. Hoerber, the proprietors of the new brewery.

After the initiations there will be a social session, at which everything possible will be done for the entertainment of the visitors from the Egyptian city.

Cairo has twice entertained the Elks from Paducah, and it is hoped that Paducah will not be found wanting in hospitality when the Cairo Elks "come to town."

SECOND CLASS.

ANOTHER EFFORT ON FOOT TO TAKE A CENSUS AND GET IN

The Push—Mayor Lang Announces in Favor of Becoming a Second Class City.

The council meets tonight in regular session, and it is understood Councilman James Wille will introduce a resolution to take another canvass of Paducah in order to get the city into the class of the second class, if the requisite 40,000 inhabitants are shown. Mayor Lang was asked today if there would be any opposition to the plan.

"Not that I know of," he replied. "There will certainly be none from me. When I fought it last year, you know, my principal objection was that it was so near the taking of a federal census that I deemed it advisable to wait. If we showed 20,000 people in this federal census it would be imperative on the legislature to place us in the second class. If we did not, and had previously been admitted to the second class on a private census, if the federal census did not show it to be as much as 20,000, it would have been equally as imperative for the legislature to set us back."

"So you see I was right, and the money spent on the census was thrown away. Even if that census had shown 20,000 people, and the last legislature had placed us in cities of the second class, we should now, just as we began to get used to the change as a result of the federal census, have to go back. You can well imagine what confusion this would have resulted in. After changing our government to conform to that of cities of the second class, which would be almost a revolutionary change, we should now have to go back where we started."

"That's the reason I opposed it before. I wanted to wait, and now that the federal census is over and there will be no other for ten years, I am in favor of it. Of course if we take the census now and pad it out a little," he concluded with a laugh, "they can't find it out on us. For it couldn't be long until we'd have to become a second class city, anyway."

WHAT MEANS

The Report Which Today Comes From Pekin and the Allied Armies?

IS WAR TO BE RESUMED?

Von Walde sees Signs Notification to Allies to be Ready to Move Forward.

REPORT LOOKS QUEER, TO SAY LEAST

Washington, Feb. 18.—Report comes from Pekin that Van Waldersee has sent notification to the allied armies to get ready to move forward on an eighty day expedition. No destination is named, however, but it is thought the "objective point" is Sian Su.

The foreign envoys believe its object to be to compel the Chinese to accept the terms of the "powers." It is thought that when it becomes known that the expedition has started the imperial court will hasten to comply immediately with all the demands of the joint note.

The military are much elated at the prospect of active service. Many believe the Chinese army will strive to the utmost to protect the province of Shen Si against invasion. Command of the expedition will be offered to Sir Alfred Gaselee, the British commander, and if he declines, being ill, then to Gen. Voyron, the French commander.

Just what America will do is not apparent, but Gen. Chaffee will not move without instructions. There are few comments from Europe, but the English press considers the order impetuous and calculated to do more harm than good.

The fire department was called to Third and Broadway about 11 o'clock this morning by a false alarm.

HOW A MAN AND HIS WIFE OUTWITTED PROPRIETOR HART LAST NIGHT.

Proprietor J. W. Hart, of the Hart house, on North Third street, is anxious to locate a young man named Roberts and his wife, who claimed to be from Memphis.

This morning their door was locked. It was found upon investigation that the room was empty, the couple having thrown their luggage out the window and escaped under cover of darkness, some time during the night, in order to evade the payment of a $10 board bill.

THE REEVES BROTHERS

Frankfort, Feb. 18.—The court recognizes Gov. Brown's commutation of the sentence of the Reeves brothers, escaped convicts recently re-arrested in Illinois. This recognition will let them out of the penitentiary in a few days, as they had only a few weeks to serve when they broke away. The decision of the court cuts no figure in the penalty of loss of good time because of the prisoners' escape, as their time had been commuted.

105 CARS

Of Baking Powder in One Train—Largest Train Ever Handled by Any Railroad.

Drawn by Four Tremendous Engines—3,018,155 Pounds of Product in One Shipment—All Records Broken.

(Special to The Sun.)

Richmond, Va., Feb. 17.—The Southern Manufacturing company, of this city, has just shipped over the Seaboard Air Line a train of one hundred and five (105) solid carloads of "Good Luck" baking powder, containing three million, eighteen thousand, one hundred and fifty-five (3,018,155) pounds of this product, as shown by railway records and bills of lading.

This was not only the largest train ever handled by any railroad, but also the most attractive, each car being brand new and on its initial trip, and each handsomely decorated with banners.

Mr. Blackton, of the American Vitagraph company, was on hand with his vitagraph and photographed the train several miles from Richmond as it started on its course, drawn by four tremendous engines.

After being extensively photographed, the train was broken into four sections, which were run twenty minutes apart. In its immensity this shipment breaks all records in the manufacturing and shipping world. The freight prepaid on same amounted to fourteen thousand, one hundred and sixty-one and four hundredths dollars ($14,161.04).

Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, twenty-five cents, the BEST skin and complexion soap and the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world. Sold throughout the world.

A BOLD CONSPIRACY

LEE WALTERS ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED FALSE SWEARING

In the "Tex" Sprague Case—Warrant issued by Judge Sanders Upon Confession of Henry Foley.

Lee Walters, a young man who formerly resided near Little Cypress, Marshall county, and figured as the alleged intended victim in two different "attempted assassinations, in which a shot gun was discharged through a window into a bed which Walters had, strange to say, "just vacated a short time before," was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers Saturday night, at his home near Maxon's Mill, for swearing falsely in the "Tex" Sprague case.

The story reads like a romance in which bold, bad men plot to ruin their neighbors by all sorts of diabolical deeds and evil machinations. It smacks of the Sherlock Holmes or Nick Carter variety of fiction.

Attorney Will Bradshaw, son of Prosecuting Attorney Bradshaw, appears in the role of detective in the case.

But to go back to the beginning. "Tex" Sprague moved to Marshall county, from the upper part of the state, a few years ago, and began to wax fat and prosper. He seemed to arouse the ill-will of some of his neighbors, and the feeling against him finally culminated in a fight with one Vernon Blewett, who was cut in the melo.

One of the main witnesses against Sprague was Lee Walters. Sprague was threatened with lynching and for a time could not be found, but he returned to stand trial and was fined $500 for cutting Blewett.

Then Walters one day started the neighborhood by declaring that a load of buckshot had been fired through a window into his pillow. The demolished window and lead perforated pillow were there to prove it.

It happened he was not using the pillow at the time. He claimed he saw by the flash of the gun that "Tex" Sprague, who, by this time, had accumulated considerable renown as a desperado, fired the shot, and Sprague was arrested for it and in time fined $75. Walters and Blewett have since both moved to this county, and Blewett recently secured a judgment in the circuit court here against Sprague for $150 in a $2,000 damage suit for injuries received in the cutting affray.

Thus matters rested until a short time ago, when, in December, John Foley, who lives near Sprague, left a random bit of information in Attorney Bradshaw's office which resulted in a subsequent confession that his brother, Henry Foley, was hired by Walters to fire the shot through the window into the pillow.

Saturday Henry Foley came to the city to see his son, who is in jail charged with stealing some property at Decker's mill, and the attorney succeeded in getting a confession from him that he was induced by Walters to fire the shot. He gave away the whole facts, showing up a conspiracy to get rid of Sprague. He confessed that Walters, whom he owed money, agreed to wait and take it out of his crop, in consideration for following out instructions relative to the shooting. He was to shoot through the window into the pillow, Walters and his family being in the next room. This he did. Young Foley, at the jail, corroborated his father to the extent that he left home on that night with a gun and when he returned said he had shot into Walters' house. He claims he did not know why he had been employed to do it, but when the charge against Sprague was tried in the courts, he failed to turn up and tell what he knew. A warrant was immediately sworn out before Judge Sanders charging Walters with false swearing. He yesterday executed bond in the sum of $700 for his appearance at Benton to answer the charge of false swearing, the alleged offense having been committed in Marshall county.

CADIZ' RAILROAD OUTLET.
It would seem, after many years of unnecessary delay, Cadiz is really to have railroad connection with the outside world by means of a "branch" line.

The people of Cadiz, who last week opened subscriptions for a $20,000 bonus to a company which promised to build the branch, have pledged the sum and the line is to be incorporated. The work of construction is to begin within sixty days and ere fall the line is expected to be in use. It has not yet been settled just where the line will get an outlet, but it is reasonable to conclude it will go to Hopkinsville.

THE GRIP.

When you awake in the morning feeling tired as if you had been in a tug of war and a prize fight and a wrestling match and had come off second best—

When you scold your wife because breakfast is ready before you are—

When you scold your wife because breakfast is not ready—

When you threaten to discharge the cook because the breakfast is not fit to eat—

When you find fault with the tramway conductor when the car runs too fast—

When you find fault with the tramway conductor when the car runs too slow—

When you begin the day's work by threatening to discharge the office boy—

When you quarrel with your partner—

When you quarrel with everyone who is not your partner—

When a Perfecto cigar smells like a livery stable on fire—

When your head feels like the inflated skin of a sausage—

When you don't care who's who or what's what—

When you don't know what you want and wouldn't want it if you did—

You've got it—Denver Post.

TO STOP A COLD.
After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. Take nothing else.

J. C. GILBERT.

A SUNNY SMILE.
It was only a sunny smile, And little it cost in the giving; But it scattered the night Like the morning light And made the day worth living.

"I have always used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cough medicine, and think it the best in the world," says Chas. Bender, a newsdealer of Erie, Pa. Nothing else as good.

FOR MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER.
The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle, So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

WILL VISIT MAYFIELD.

PADUCAH "MAIDS" TO DELIGHT RESIDENTS IN GRAVES' CAPITAL TONIGHT.

Tonight the "Old Maids of Oklahoma," composed of charming Paducahans, are to appear before a Mayfield audience. The "Maids" and their friends will go out on the 6 o'clock train and come home on the midnight passenger. There promises to be a goodly party, special rates and an enjoyable time being assured.

The people of Mayfield are promised a good entertainment and will no doubt fill their pretty little hall. They are assured unique pleasures at the good graces of many of our best people and their patronage will assist a worthy cause.

All that is needed is a pleasant evening and this is the prediction.

—From indications the mid-winter carnival to be opened tonight will be one of the most successful of like affairs ever given in Paducah. The idea of giving it was suggested by Miss Tessie Blum, of Nashville, a pleasant visitor in the city, and she has been a moving spirit in the management of it.

RAILROAD NEWS.

It is rumored that the Illinois Central contemplates enlarging its bridge at Cairo, Ill., in order to run a double track over it.

Yesterday morning train No. 103, from Louisville to Memphis, passed through Paducah in four sections and left Fulton in eight. The three extra sections were Raymond-Whitcomb special trains of eight coaches each, en route south. The first was in charge of Conductor Kinkle and Engineer Grogan; the second of Conductor Haselmond and Engineer Gill, and the last Conductor Anderson and Engineer Eaker. They arrived at 5:07, 5:25 and 7:15 o'clock respectively.

A jimmey train got off the track at Cumberland river last night but did no damage of consequence.

This evening a special coach of ladies and gentlemen who go to Mayfield to give the "Old Maids" return, will be attached to the 6 o'clock train. It is expected forty or fifty will be in the party. They will return at 1:30 in the morning.

The pay train will arrive Wednesday morning and pay off all Illinois Central employees.

Yesterday morning's St. Louis train, due at 7:30, was delayed about eight hours by striking some cars at Carterville, Ill. It was brought over at 3:30 with the afternoon St. Louis train, both arriving at the same time.

Mr. Brooks, superintendent of the Illinois Central's water supply, is in the city.

IN THREE WRECKS.

DR. FRANK BOYD HAS SOME THRILLING ESCAPES ON HIS WAY HOME FROM MEXICO.

Dr. Frank Boyd returned yesterday from Guadalupe, Mexico, where he went several weeks ago on a visit to Mr. W. C. Ellis. He left Mr. Ellis improving. The latter will leave Mexico about April 1st for Ashville, N. C., to spend a couple of months before coming home.

Dr. Boyd's trip home abounded in narrow escapes. He left Mexico City a week ago today. Not being in the least superstitious, he purchased some opals before he started.

About the first night out the train was wrecked, and he did his utmost to get through one end of the sleeper headforemost. He was not seriously hurt—but thought of the opals. He overcame his impulse to throw them out the window, and further on the train hit a freight train and they all had narrow escapes again.

He still conquered his desire to part company with the gems. In New Orleans there were seven of them en route to the Illinois Central depot in a bus when the vehicle was struck by an L. & N. train and badly wrecked.

Dr. Boyd escaped by backing through a window.

He reached home safe, but is giving the opals away to his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes leave Wednesday for Guadalupe to join Mr. Ellis.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING.
